Remarks

A Masterpiece in The Landings' Most Coveted Enclave. Presenting a rare opportunity to acquire an impeccably crafted residence on the sought-after cul-de-sac of Peregrine Point Way. Built in 2020 with meticulous attention to feng shui principles, this single-level sanctuary spans over 3,800 square feet of thoughtfully designed living space, offering the perfect blend of sophistication, flow, and modern convenience. Grand First Impressions A circular driveway sets the stage for this distinguished residence. Pass through custom wooden gates into an impressive formal Florida entry courtyard, where a striking bronze fountain creates an unforgettable "wow factor" for arriving guests. This exceptional entry experience speaks to the caliber of craftsmanship found throughout. Exquisite Interior Details Marble flooring flows gracefully throughout the main living areas, establishing an elegant foundation for refined living. The thoughtful split floor plan ensures both privacy and space, while the single-level design provides effortless flow—a rare find in homes of this caliber. The formal living room exemplifies true feng shui design, creating a seamless visual and physical connection to the resort-style outdoor spaces beyond. An adjacent formal dining room provides the perfect setting
